

OPENHIVE™ Leadership Forum

Investments Built to Last, Built for Success

Date: 11th June, 2010

Venue: Microsoft, Reading Headquarters

Overview

Investments built to last and built to succeed. By proactively addressing the challenges of the economic crisis while maintaining our investments in the future, together we can make investments that are built to last and built to succeed. Our unique mix of learning technologies and proven ability to transform learning services and reduce cost, positions Synetrix as a new leader in educational cloud computing - one of the most exciting areas in business today.

Audience

This Forum will bring together the strategic community that informs and leads investment decisions for BSF, Regional Broadband Consortia, Local Education Partners and Local Authorities.
